Di Cooke

Di is an artistic Choreographer and Director who brings original ideas to her audiences and can blend unexpected matches between traditional and contemporary. Her strength as a choreographer comes from being highly qualified and versatile in many forms of dance. Her work is technical, expressive and above all entertaining.

Di has worked with a plethora of performers, actors & comedians including Julian Clarey, Michael Ball, Ronnie Corbett, Frank Skinner, Peter Davison & Julie Graham to name just a few.

With her open and versatile approach she has the ability to draw the best out of her performers.
